Privacy Policy

Effective Date: October 1, 2025

At Final-Insight, your privacy and trust are our highest priorities. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and protect your personal information when you use our website or services.

1. Information We Collect

We may collect the following information from you:

- Personal details such as your name, email address, phone number, and mailing address
 - Case-related materials you voluntarily share (e.g., autopsy, toxicology, or investigative reports)
 - Payment information, processed securely through third-party providers
 - Technical information such as your browser type, IP address, and how you use our website

2. How We Use Your Information

Your information is used only to:

- Communicate with you about your case or service request
- Review and interpret materials you've submitted
- Process payments and maintain service records
- Improve our website and client experience
- Comply with legal or regulatory obligations

We do not sell, rent, or trade your personal information to any third parties.

3. Data Protection and Security

We take reasonable steps to protect your data from loss, misuse, or unauthorized access. However, please note that no online transmission or electronic storage system can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. By using our services, you acknowledge and accept this limitation.

4. Confidentiality of Case Materials

All case materials provided to Final-Insight are treated as confidential and used solely for the purpose of analysis and consultation.

No information will be shared without your consent, except:

- When required by law or court order
 - To protect our legal rights or comply with legal obligations

5. Cookies and Tracking

Our website may use cookies or similar technologies to improve functionality and user experience. You may adjust your browser settings to decline cookies, though this may limit certain features.

6. Third-Party Services

We may use third-party platforms (such as Wix, PayPal, or Square) to process payments or manage online forms. These providers have their own privacy policies that govern how your data is handled.
